CPBO PRO BONO PARTNER AWARD

Nomination Form

Deadline: April 21, 2017

Each year, Corporate Pro Bono (CPBO) presents one or more CPBO Pro Bono Partner Awards in honor of innovative team approaches to pro bono work involving in-house legal departments. The awards are presented in the fall at Pro Bono Institute's Annual Dinner in New York City and may be presented to (i) a partnership that includes at least one legal department with 50 or more lawyers and (ii) a partnership that includes only legal departments with 49 or less lawyers.

Recipients of the award are composed of at least one legal department and one or more law firms and/or public interest group partners and are selected based on the following criteria:

- demonstrated impact on its community or target group
- substantial involvement by in-house lawyers
- tangible steps toward making the partnership sustained
- innovative substantive and/or structural (e.g., delivery model) approaches to the effort
- addresses a critical legal need and/or particularly vulnerable community/target group
