

CPBO PRO BONO PARTNER AWARD

Nomination Form

Deadline: May 20, 2016

Each year, Corporate Pro Bono (CPBO) presents one or more CPBO Pro Bono Partner Awards in honor of innovative team approaches to pro bono work involving in-house legal departments. The awards are presented in the fall at the Pro Bono Institute's Annual Dinner in New York City and may be presented to (i) a partnership that includes at least one legal department with 50 or more lawyers and (ii) a partnership that includes only legal departments with 49 or less lawyers.

Recipients of the award are composed of at least one legal department and one or more law firms and/or public interest group partners.

To submit an application for the CPBO Pro Bono Partner Award, please complete the following form. Recipients of this award are selected based on the following project criteria:

- demonstrated impact on its community or target group
- substantial involvement by in-house lawyers
- tangible steps toward making the partnership sustained
- innovative substantive and/or structural (e.g., delivery model) approaches to the effort
- addresses a critical legal need and/or particularly vulnerable community/target group
