

Getting Started Series: How to Launch an In-House Pro Bono Program

Provided by Corporate Pro Bono (CPBO), the global partnership project of Pro Bono Institute and Association of Corporate Counsel

Join CPBO for a series of twice-monthly virtual discussions held with a cohort of in-house departments new to pro bono covering topics legal departments need to know to start a pro bono program. The series will include eight sessions, with speakers and experts invited to cover various subjects ranging from structuring a program, insurance, project selection and partnerships, multijurisdictional practice, marketing, and communications. The series is designed to provide legal departments with the knowledge, resources, and support to build their pro bono programs and stay on track alongside their peers in other legal departments.

Each one and a half hour session will feature the following:

- Guidance from CPBO on a topic key to in-house pro bono
- Networking with other new in-house pro bono leaders
- Insight from experienced pro bono leaders
- Review of resources and samples
